Fearless when making a parachute jump from more than 4000 meters... or when deep-sea diving (level 3 in deep-sea diving). Born in Montpellier with a natural fighting spirit, she graduated at the School of the Louvre, and finally chose to devote her career to lyrical singing and became a student at the prestigious CNSM of Paris. She then joined the troop of the Opera of Lyon and very quickly won many "premiers prix" and singing contests. She is awarded the "Soloist of the Year" prize in 1988 by the European Union of Radios.

Brigitte Lafon takes part in television and radio programs and she records discs (some of which as world première), she participates in opera movies and becomes a regular guest of the most renowned stages and international festivals (Italy, Germany, Ireland, Lebanon, Canada, Switzerland, Israel, Morocco, the USA...).

For the past few years she has created and put in scene her "SHOW de DIVAS" which has become a resounding success.
